TO-DAY'S CABLES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail)

ANOTHER COAL STRIKE?

MINERS' STAND FOR A NATIONAL WAGES BOARD.

GOVERNMENT MUST INTERVENE.

LONDON, March 24.

The miners' delegate conference to-day decided to reject the coal owners' proposals for a wages settlement on a district basis and to adhere to the demand for a national wages board. The members of the executive afterwards declared the decision would involve a national stoppage on April 1 unless the Government intervened.

CHINESE STUDENTS IN FRANCE.

PARIS, March 23.

Mr. Tchong Lo, the Chinese Minister to France, after visiting the Lyons Fair, paid a visit to the great steel works and foundries of the company of Marine and Homecourt in Saint Chamond where about fifty young Chinese mechanical engineers are now being trained. —Havas.

MILAN THEATRE OUTRAGE.

DESTRUCTIVE BOMB CARRIED IN PORTMANTEAU.

MILAN, March 24.

In the Diana Theatre outrage 17 persons were killed and 93 injured. It is believed that the bomb was carried in a portmanteau to the emergency door. [A previous message stated that the Diana Theatre was blown up by a bomb. The crime was attributed to anarchists.]

EAST CHINESE RAILWAYS.

COMMUNICATIONS CONFERENCE DECISION.

BARCELONA, March 24.

At a meeting of the international communications conference, China asked that the East Chinese railways be excluded from the operation of the draft convention until a stable government is established in Russia, but it was decided that the case was covered by the provisions of article eleven which settles the relations with states not adhering to the Convention.

URUGUAY'S WOOL EXPORT.

WASHINGTON, March 24.

A message from Monte Video states that the Uruguayan Government is contemplating far-reaching credit schemes for the export of wool to Germany, Belgium, France and other European countries, also to Japan.

REPARATIONS DEMANDS.

COMMISSION'S REPLY TO GERMANY.

PARIS, March 24.

The Reparations Commission, in the course of its reply to Germany, says that in claiming one milliard gold marks of unpaid balance by March 23 it acted on the certainty that Germany possesses realisable assets sufficient for payment.

The reply of the Reparations Commission to Germany points out that the Commission alone is empowered to fix the value of the payments. It is emphasised that the whole of the twenty milliard gold marks under article 235 must be paid by May 1 but as a consequence of German default the commission has informed the Allies regarding the matter.

COTTON DUTIES.

INDIA AND IMPERIAL PREFERENCE.

LONDON, March 25.

Mr. Montagu, replying to a deputation of the Lancashire cotton trade on March 23 in connection with cotton duties said that he believed the duties were necessary and expressed the opinion that the future fiscal policy of India, based on the tariff commission of India, would be protective because India was nearly wholly in favour of protection. Nevertheless, the duties were at present dictated by the sternest financial necessity. He hoped that India would demonstrate its solidarity for the British Empire and use its fiscal liberty to take a stand for the system adopted by the Dominions and Britain, but it would be a profound mistake for imperial statesmanship to force imperial preference on India. He said that he was determined to give the Raj the right to consider the interests of India first. He expressed the opinion that the well-being that would be promoted between Britain and India by letting India have her own fiscal way would result in greater trade between the countries. He promised to convey to India the views of the deputation and the difficulties of the Lancashire cotton trade would be widely disseminated in India and he hoped that would have an immediate effect.

NAVAL ARMAMENTS.

PREMIER AVOIDS A PREMATURE STATEMENT.

LONDON, March 24.

In the House of Commons Mr. Hurd asked the Prime Minister to consider the desirability of inviting the governments of the United States and Japan to send special representatives to London in June in order that the problem of naval armaments may be considered at a friendly conference on the lines of President Harding's inaugural speech and Lord Lee's recent declaration, with the advantages of the presence of the ministers of the Dominions and India in London. Colonel Sir Frederick Hall asked what steps were being taken to arrange a discussion between representatives of Britain and the United States on naval programmes. Mr. Lloyd George replied that any statement on this important question would now be premature.

ANGLO-RUSSIAN TRADE AGREEMENT.

AFGHAN TREATY ACID TEST OF SOVIET GOOD FAITH.

LONDON, March 24.

In the House of Lords, replying to Lord Sydenham, Lord Lytton, the Under Secretary for India, said that the Government had no official information of the terms of the Russo-Afghan treaty the signature of which was announced by Moscow wireless on March 3, but the Government did not intend to enter into an Anglo-Afghan treaty until the terms of the Russo-Afghan treaty had been revealed. He declared that the Russo-Afghan treaty was the acid test of the willingness of the Bolshevik Government to carry out the conditions of the Anglo-Russian trade agreement.

Sensational evidence was given at the trial of John Doughty, who was charged with stealing $21,000 worth of Bonds from his former employer Mr. Ambrose Small, the millionaire who disappeared from Toronto on December 3rd, 1918. Fred Daville, who printed the programmes of the Grand Opera House, of which Mr. Small was the owner, declared that Doughty, nine months before Mr. Small disappeared, suggested that Mr. Small might be killed and submitted a plan by which they (Doughty and Daville) could obtain $100,000 out of Mr. Small's wealth.

CHILDREN'S CORNER.

My dear Children,

You will all be thinking a lot about Easter and holidays and Easter eggs just now I expect and I hope you will all have a very happy time.

Talking about eggs reminds me of the story of Columbus and the egg.

I wonder how many of you know it?
Of course all of you who know anything about history know that Christopher Columbus discovered America. One day, when he had come home to Spain again, he was talking to a number of clever men.

Some of them were rather jealous of him and even said that anybody might have thought of making such a discovery. Then Columbus took an egg and asked which of them could make it stand upright on a table. They all tried but none of them could do it. Columbus picked up the egg, smashed it in one end and then stood it up on the table.

"Why," said some of the men,
"Anyone might have thought of doing that!"

"Yes," replied Columbus, "But no one did think of it, and in the same way no one thought of discovering America!"

That was a good way of showing them what he meant, don't you think?

Your loving,
PETER PAN.

EASTER EGG LAND.

It was Easter Sunday and Susie had been given more eggs than she had ever had before.

Some of them were made of chocolate and these did not last very long, especially as Paul, Susie's little brother, who was just beginning to toddle about, seized two of them when nobody was looking and went off with them.

Chu-Chu, the big chow dog was near by, and Paul threw the eggs to him, thinking it was a great joke, and Chu-Chu snapped them up in a minute.

However Susie had one or two large cardboard eggs as well, filled with sweets, and one very pretty one covered with pale blue silk, tied up with white ribbon.

She liked this one best of all and when she went to bed that night she put it on the chest of drawers where she could see it as soon as she woke up in the morning.

She got into bed, shut her eyes and was just going off to sleep when she heard a voice saying, "This is the prettiest one that we have seen yet.
I am sure that it will win the prize if I can manage to take it with us."

And when Susie opened her eyes again there were two tiny fairies walking round and round the egg, examining it carefully. Their dresses were made of petals of Easter lilies and they wore little hats of the same flowers and they looked as dainty and as charming as anything that you can possibly imagine.

"Let us call the Heave Ho men, Lilybell," said the second fairy,
whose name was Daffydownilly.

At once Lilybell blew a silver whistle that she wore round her neck, on a shining chain and six small men came running up. They wore lil-leaf coats and strong shoes made of bark and looked as if they were used to doing some work.

"Carry this egg very carefully," commanded Daffydownilly. "And we will travel in the usual way."

As she said this she touched the side of the egg with a wand that she carried. A door opened outwards and the two fairies went about to walk inside when Susie sat up in bed and called out, "But it is in my egg and my favourite egg too!"

They stopped and Lilybell came forward and said, "I am sorry about that but we thought as you had so many more that you would not miss this one."

"Where do you want to take it?"
asked Susie.

"To Easter Egg Land," replied Lilybell. "Will you come with us and then I can tell you all about it as we go."

"Oh yes please," cried Susie, who had never been in fairyland before.
"Do take me with you. Only how can I make myself small enough to get into the egg?" (She knew of course that this could be managed from reading fairy tales.)

"Take my magic shoe," put in Daffydownilly, handing a tiny petal shoe down to her. "And as soon as you put it against your foot everything will be all right."

"Then I had better climb up on to the chest of drawers first," Susie said. So she clambered up, put the shoe against her foot and the next minute found that she was quite small enough to get into the egg.

The fairies had already gone through the doorway and were sitting on the chocolates, which made comfortable seats and as soon as Susie had sat down between the six men said, "Have Ho!" all together, lifted the egg on to their shoulders and off they went at a great pace, through the open window, down the thick ivy which covered the walls of the house and jog-trot along the paths as fast as they could go.

And as they went the fairies told Susie all about Easter Egg Land.

"The Fairy Queen has a daughter called Princess Ripplelaugh," began Lilybell. "And she is such a charming princess that we all love to do everything that we can for her. A few years ago, about Easter time, she found in a garden a very pretty Easter egg, red and white, with flowers painted all over it."

The King thought that it would make a nice house, so carpenters at once set to work and divided it up into different rooms. The Chestnut Fairies made tables and chairs from the most beautifully polished chestnuts. Then holes were cut in it and spiders spun webs across them to make lattice windows and ever so many glow-worms came to light it up. The Easter Egg stood on a mossy bank in a wood and Princess Ripplelaugh was delighted with her new house."

"And now I will tell you some more about it," went on Daffydown-illy, as Lilybell paused for breath.
"Ever since then the Queen has offered a prize every year for the prettiest Easter egg that can be found so that now all the Ladies-in-Waiting belonging to the princess and many of her friends live in egg houses and for some time the place has been called Easter Egg Land."

"What is the prize?" asked Susie.

"It is one of the Princess' golden curls," replied Daffydownilly.

"What a queer prize!" exclaimed Susie.

"No it isn't queer at all," answered Daffydownilly, rather humbly. "It is magic hair and anyone who possesses it can..."

But at that moment the Heave Ho men stopped with a bump.

"Here we are," cried Lilybell and out they all jumped.

And what a pretty sight met their eyes!

They were in the middle of a wood but there was a clear space between the trees carpeted with bright green moss. Between the trees Susie could see a number of Easter eggs of all colours and sizes. They were lighted up by hundreds of glow-worms.
Fireflies were on all the low branches of the trees around.

A band of crickets was performing on the bough of one tree and in front of the biggest Easter egg of all fairies were dancing in a ring round and round a beautiful golden haired one who stood in the middle.

"There she is," whispered Lilybell.
That is the Princess Ripplelaugh, and she took Susie by the hand and was about to lead her over to the fairy ring when a butterfly chariot came flying along and everyone cried "Make way for the King and Queen!"

The King and Queen, who wore very beautiful dewdrop crowns, got out and everybody bowed before them.

Then the Queen asked if there were any Easter egg to be seen.
There were four or five new ones but,
as the fairies at once exclaimed over the prettiness of the one that belonged to Susie, Princess Ripplelaugh gave one of her golden curls to Lily-bell and Daffydownilly to divide between them.

After that there was a dance which lasted for hours, as no one in fairyland is ever tired of dancing. Then came a great feast of chocolate eggs and sugar eggs of all kinds, served on lily petal plates.

Suddenly a cock in some distant farmland crew. The fairies all rushed into their houses and shut the doors. The King and Queen jumped into their chariot and were whisked away. Susie again heard the "Have Ho" and found that she was being carried away in a chair made of bark.

The next thing that she knew was that she was safely at home in her own bed and her Nurse was coming in to tell her that it was time to get up.

She looked at the chest of drawers.
Sure enough the Easter egg had gone and was never seen again.

But Susie did not mind as she was so delighted to have had a peep at Fairyland.

PETER PAN.

(Some time I will tell you all about Princess Ripplelaugh's magic curls.)

A LITTLE BOY'S IDEAS OF EASTER.

When I was a baby and really quite small,
To hear about Easter meant nothing at all.

But now I am old and have chocolates and sweets.

I know that it means I have all sorts of treats.

I dress—oh so quickly—and rush down the stairs.

(But I do wash my face and have said my prayers.)

For there on my plate I am sure I will see

The eggs that my Daddy and Mam buy for me.

And sometimes my Aunties remember me too.

They're good at remembering though but they're lots to do.

Of course I love Christmas and birthdays and all.

But Easter is fun, now I've stopped being small.

Have any of you ever heard of a wonderful egg called "The serpent's egg of the Druids?"

It was an egg said to be hatched by several serpents and they blew it up into the air and kept it there their hissing. Anyone who caught it had to ride off as fast as possible or he would have been stung to death, but whoever had this egg was bound to win in any fight and to be taken notice of by those in power, so that it was worth having.

It was rather a risky business getting hold of it though, don't you think?

What egg does a cricketer dislike?
A duck's egg.

A Straits contemporary tells an astonishing story, under the heading "Submarine Crew in Town." We quote it as it appeared: "The submarine L. 8, one the two under water craft which had of impounded H.M.S.
"Hawkins" from accoing for the Naval Conference at Hongkstopped at Port Sweetenham, an Penang, of the sailors visited Kuala Luda, a few on day, The L. 8 resumed her impur on Menang yesterday morning.
voyage to P." It looks as though the gallant tars had been shelled by a blast of type shrapnel. We have our misgivings as to the out come of this resumption of the "impur on menang." Our sympathies to everybody.
We have been treated like this ourselves before now, though we were never completely "Hongkstopped," declares the Penang Gazette.

Mrs. Hands Was In Torment With Rash Caticura Healed

"A dry itching rash began coming out on me. It first began on my hands in little pimples and after a week or two came out all over my body until I was a mass all over me, especially my neck and head. The eczema looked so that I can't

TO-DAY'S CABLES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

ALLEGED AMERICAN DEBTS TO FRANCE.

WASHINGTON, March 24.
Renewed allegations in the French Senate that the United States owes France money have provoked a statement by Mr. Mellon that the treasury records have been searched but there is no trace of evidence of unpaid obligations.

GREEK OFFENSIVE IN SMYRNA.

LONDON, March 24.
Athens messages confirm the opening of a Greek offensive in Smyrna. The commander issued a proclamation calling on the troops finally to crush the "barbarian forces."

BOTH SIDES CLAIM SUCCESSES.

LONDON, March 25.
Both Greeks and Turks are announcing successes in connection with the Greek offensive in Smyrna. Constantinople official messages which claim that the Turks have captured 1,700 prisoners and 20 guns are refuted by the Greek Legation, which claims, on the contrary, that the Greeks are advancing in the Ushak and Bursa fronts, on the latter to a depth of twelve miles and that the enemy is retreating in disorder.

PERSIA'S TREATY WITH RUSSIA.

BRUSSELS, March 24.
The Persian Legation announces that a Russo-Persian treaty providing for the withdrawal of Russian troops from Persia and the dissolution of the Chilan Soviet has been signed at Moscow.

ATHLETIC SPORTS.

SOUTH CHINA ASSOCIATION.

YESTERDAY'S MEETING.

The first annual athletic sports meeting of the South China Athletic Association was held at the Racecourse yesterday, by kind permission of the Stewards of the Hongkong Jockey Club.

The heavy rain which came down until about 10 a.m., made the course heavy for running, but competitors having come down from Canton to take part in the meet, a postponement was most undesirable, and in spite of the unfavourable conditions a start was made soon after 10 o'clock with the heats. These went off without a hitch, and by 11, with the sun beginning to peep through the clouds, the finals were run off.

Competition was keen throughout, and some very good sprinting was witnessed by the large crowd present although the time made in the various events was, owing to the nature of the ground, several seconds above the usual.

There were sixteen items on the programme. Six were Championship events in which points were awarded for each place, and these were counted towards the Championship of the Association, the competitor securing the highest number of points to receive a Challenge Cup and Championship Gold Medal. The Championship events were 100 yards, long jump, 220 yards, half mile, 120 yards high hurdles, and high jump. The other events included a 220 yards sprint for the Championship of the Colony, open to all comers, low hurdles, shot put, 440 yards, 220 yards handicap, one mile relay for teams of four, three miles bicycle race, a children's race, and ladies' nomination.

The Championship of the Colony attracted five entries, of which four were Indian boys. A good race was witnessed. Rahmin and Hyder detached themselves from the others early in the race, and running abreast for the best part of the distance, had a very strenuous struggle near home with Rahmin bursting the tape less than a yard in front of his opponent. Ismail ran a good race for third place, being only about a yard behind Hyder. Omar who last year won the Championship from Rahmin at the Lusitano sports did not compete owing to injuries to his leg sustained in a football match in midweek.

The most exciting event of the meet was the relay race in which four teams took part. The Ling Nam College of Canton assumed the lead early in the race. This lead they increased as the race progressed and led by a very big margin in the last lap. They looked like easy winners, when St. Paul's College's last man, who was running a fast quarter mile, gradually overhauled the leader, and with a last effort about five yards from home, managed to match a victory by breasting the tape a fraction of a second in front of his opponent. This was a very popular win which earned for the winner much well deserved applause from the spectators.

A very good rule introduced by the Association was that no competitor could win more than three prizes. This added zest to the competition, for while nothing prevented a man competing in every event and scoring points towards the Championship Cup and Gold Medal, the lesser lights were given a fair chance of securing a trophy.

At the conclusion of the day's sport, the crowd gathered round a table in the Grand Stand with a beautiful collection of silver cups of all sizes. Speeches were made in Chinese. Mrs. Mok Kong Sang, wife of the president of the Association, then distributed the prizes to the successful competitors, receiving afterwards a beautiful bouquet of flowers in a silver vase as a memento of the occasion. Among the trophies on the table was exhibited the huge football cup won by the Association for the third time at the Far Eastern Olympiad Games in Japan. It is now the property of the Association.

EXPENSIVE LAWSUIT.

DOCK LITIGATION.

£38,000 PAID IN FEES FOR COUNSEL ALONE.

One of the most expensive lawsuits of modern times ended in the English law courts at the end of January. It has occupied 28 days and has earned for counsel alone £38,000. The case, which has been before the King's Bench Division since December 2, is shown in the list as two actions—Manchester Ship Canal v. Brunner Mond and Co., and Attorney-General v. Manchester Ship Canal. The leading counsel on each side—Sir John Simon, K.C., and Mr. Upjohn, K.C.—each had 2,000 guineas marked on his brief, with daily refreshers of 200 guineas. There were no fewer than seven K.C.'s engaged in the case, and two juniors. The leaders alone have each earned about £7,800 in a month's attendance—nine days of speeches 19 days of evidence. The action is of great importance to a number of traders on the Western Mersey access below Widnes and Runcorn on the Mersey. There are a group of docks at this point, and a number of big factories, and the question at issue is one of tolls. Mr. Justice Sankey has reserved judgment until he returns from circuit, and probably his decision will not be made known till March when more fees will be drawn by counsel who attend the judgment. The printed evidence reached 1,200 pages, and counsel's speeches 319 pages.

How did you wake this morning?
Feeling fresh and 'fit', or cross and depressed, with a coated tongue and a sense of being 50% below par? If the latter it's time you tried Pinkettes, the dainty little liver and bowel regulators which act as gently as nature. Two Pinkettes to night. "You'll feel better in the morning."

NEW MAGAZINE PROPOSED.

[To the Editor of the "China Mail"]

Sir,—It has often been suggested that there is room for the publication of a locally-produced literary magazine in Hong Kong. Apparently here tofore no one has ever had the energy to make a start. I should be glad if you would grant me space to lay a proposition before your readers. With two other gentlemen, I am now prepared to try and bring out a quarterly magazine. As those who paint or draw, send their work to the exhibitions of the Sketch Club, so we hope, those who write will send their work to us. We shall run on non-political non-sectarian lines. Poems, essays, short stories, and literary criticism will appear, and it is hoped to start a prize page on the lines of the Westminster Gazette.

It is unfortunately impossible to expect that such a publication will pay its way. We therefore propose to publish by subscription, if enough people want to see the magazine appear. That is to say, we wish to obtain guarantees to the total of $250 for the first quarter, either in $5 or $10 shares. No doubt some funds will be derived from sales and advertisements and the deficit will be made up by proportionate payments from the guarantors. Each of them, and each contributor of accepted work, will receive a free copy. Five or ten dollars may be a ridiculous price for a quarterly, (that is the way our carping critics will put it), but it is well to be on the safe side, and we hope that only a small percentage will have to be called up.

I shall be glad to discuss the matter personally with anyone who is interested in it, or to take any names of those who would be good enough to act as guarantors. Contributions to the first number, which, we hope, will appear on July 1st, must be sent to me personally at "Lauriston," No. 1 Bowen Road, not later than May 31st.

I am, Sir, &c., &c.

E. W. HAMILTON.
